To Whom it May Concern,

I am writing to you as a character reference for Michael-Chase Strollo. I have known Mr. Strollo for about five years, and can happily report that he is a man of upstanding character.

In the time I have known Mr. Strollo, he has been a hardworking, kind, empathetic, and reliable man. I have seen his successful efforts in business come to fruition, and have taken note of his interest in helping the community around him through his work in the arts. Michael-Chase is a veteran, and served his country well. He is proud of the years he served, and has gone out of his way to celebrate other veterans, and make sure their courageous efforts are recognized.

As a local business owner in Atlanta, I am proud to say I have worked with Michael-Chase in various projects in the Atlanta art scene, and he is someone with bright ideas and incredible drive. I have recommended his services to both clients and colleagues many a time, and would continue to do so. Mr. Strollo has been an advocate for the artists he has worked with, and gone out of his way to ensure their success and legacy, while also being a good friend to them and their families. I believe that Mr. Strollo is a valued member of his community, and someone who has had a positive impact in the lives of many.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions, or would like additional information.

Sincerely,

Anna S.K. Masten
